

furniture lighting & decor

different strokes

what's driving new business models and home trends?

JULY 2019

furniturelightingdecor.com

IDEA BOARD

ICFF RECAP

The Robern Uplift mirror/cabinet from Kohler is the first cabinet to use vertical-opening, no-swing doors. The cabinet also features a night light, mirror defogger, built-in USB charging ports, shelving and integrated electrical outlets.
www.kohler.com

This porcelain hanging light, Nightbloom by Lladro, is designed to replicate flower petals swaying in the breeze. www.lladro.com

LIFE ON THE EDGE

From curve appeal to unexpected framing, these ICFF debuts were focused on the framework.

BY DIANE FALVEY

ArianeSké places an emphasis on seating comfort with her designs. New techniques in wood bending and alternative materials are used in the artist's dining chair designs.
www.arianeske.com

The Oaxaca outdoor rug from Nani Marquina features a simple geometric pattern mixed with bright flowers. Designed with an indoor look and feel but with outdoor resistance.
www.nanimarquina.com

The Moon! lamp from Fermob is equally at home indoors or out and is inspired by street lamps in the 19th District in Paris. The latest design can be turned on and off by touch. Comes in multiple colors.
www.fermob.com